

Step 2

Slide the spacers up until they fit completely and then tighten the screws to form the vertical structure of the top module.

It should look like the picture when finished